

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

BARTON MORRIS AND CRAIG ARONOFF OF CANNABIS LEGAL GROUP
APPOINTED TO SAFETY COMPLIANCE BOARD AND PROCESSOR BOARD, RESPECTIVELY, BY THE BUREAU OF MARIJUANA REGULATION

Royal Oak, Michigan--- The Department of Licensing and Regulatory Affairs has appointed Barton Morris and Craig Aronoff of the Cannabis Legal Group to both the safety compliance board and the processor licensing board, respectively. Their roles as members of these boards will be to gather information on proper procedural activities for their respective work groups.

Barton Morris on his appointment, "One of the hallmarks of every commercially regulated cannabis industry is chemical and biological testing for safety. It is the aspect of the regulations that I am most interested and experienced. Unfortunately, there are no universal standards for cannabis testing laboratories in this country. I am very honored and excited to be included in the advisory process of the creation of these very important regulations. They will a significant impact to both the cannabis industry and our Michigan Medical Marijuana Patients." Craig Aronoff stated, "I am thrilled to have been named to the Processing License work group and having the opportunity to offer input on how the rules will be set up. We are going to have a robust market that will encourage innovation while emphasizing safety. Being involved in this process is an honor and I look forward to passing that experience on to our clients at the Cannabis Legal Group."

Morris and Aronoff are available for Broadcast and Print interviews.
