BARTON W. MORRIS, JR., AND THE CANNABIS LEGAL GROUP ANNOUNCES EVENT SUPPORTING DANIEL HABERMAN FOR CONGRESS
ON THURSDAY, MARCH 1st

ROYAL OAK, MI: Barton W. Morris, Jr. and the Cannabis Legal Group announced today a networking event to discuss federal cannabis policy with Daniel Haberman. Haberman will be discussing his congressional policies prior to his run for congress.

Haberman was born in the city of Detroit and has always been an active member of his community. In addition, he has been a huge supporter of the ever-evolving cannabis industry. Haberman is a Democrat and has dedicated his life and career to strengthening the Metro-Detroit community and public policies relating to healthcare and building successful businesses.

Haberman graduated from the University of Detroit High School and went on to attend the University of Michigan. There, Haberman received his BA in political science. After a successful internship with Senator Carl Levin, Haberman decided to attend law school at George Washington University in Washington, D.C., earning his Juris Doctor in 1998.

The event will be held at the Elm Room at Vinoteca, in Downtown Birmingham on Thursday, March 1st, beginning at 6:00pm. The event will play host to Haberman and his large network of supporters. Topics of discussion will include advocacy for progressive marijuana reform and congressional politics. All attendees will have the opportunity to meet Daniel Haberman.
